

This is Disney+'s top watched content in Peru!

As other streaming platforms, Disney+ is trying to get its content to be many countries first choice.

Since it first launched to the peruvian market in November 2020, Disney+ has been a platform of very consistent use among the population of the country. Considering holidays and summer vacations have finally arrived for them, most families and people from all ages have been searching for something new to watch to enjoy their free time. Here you have what appear to be their top picks:

1. Malcolm

Description according to Disney+: “Malcolm, a 9-year-old kid who enjoys skateboarding and hanging out with best friend Stevie, has his life turned upside down when he is forced into the "gifted" class and finds himself surrounded by a group of talented outcasts.”

2. Bluey

Description according to Disney+: “Bluey is an inexhaustible six year-old Blue Heeler dog, who loves to play and turns everyday family life into extraordinary adventures, developing her imagination as well as her mental, physical and emotional resilience.”

3. The Simpsons

Description according to Disney+: “This animated comedy focuses on the eponymous family in the town of Springfield. The head of the Simpson family, Homer, is not a typical family man. A nuclear-plant employee, he does his best to lead his family but often finds that they are leading him.”

4. Willow

Description according to Disney+: “Willow, the legendary sorcerer, returns in a new series set many years after the events of the original film. Willow leads a group of misfit heroes on a dangerous rescue mission through a world beyond their wildest imaginations. Some flashing lights sequences or patterns may affect photosensitive viewers.”

5. Jessie

Description according to Disney+: “Jessie, an 18-year-old girl from a small town in Texas, decides to follow her dreams by moving to glamorous New York City. She accepts a job as a nanny for the wealthy Ross family and moves into a multi-million dollar penthouse right on Central Park.”
